Card-Pitt was the team created by the temporary merger of two National Football League (NFL) teams, the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Chicago Cardinals, during the 1944 season. It was the second such merger for the Steelers, who had combined with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 to form the "Steagles". The arrangement was made necessary by the loss of numerous players to World War II military ...

You have done a great favor for those of us that have an interest in both American and LDS history. It was a long read, but very worthwhile. I believe that it is important to note that the cited opinion of "responsible military men" that foreign invasion of the U.S. could not come was proven wrong less than two months after the First Presidency's letter was penned.
