You know from the blurb what happened to Gina and that it tore her and Mike apart. A good chunk of the beginning of this story takes place in the past showing you what happened. Ok so then we jump ahead 20 years and all I can think is wow that is a lot of wasted time.

Gina and Mike by Buffy Andrews was an emotional story. I couldn't imagine how Gina felt all these years. Or Mike for that matter. He didn't have a clue. It was frustrating that she didn't tell him her story earlier, especially once she told her best friend. He deserved to know, but I understand how hard talking about something like that would be.

"Gina & Mike" is a sweet, sentimental story of friends and lovers reunited after years of separation and heartache. Buffy does an excellent job breathing life into her characters -- giving them each a unique voice and perspective -- as they struggle to overcome obstacles and tragic life circumstances in order to find their way back to one another.
