John Ralston Saul's Voltaire's Bastards : The Dictatorship

Voltaire and his contemporaries believed that reason was the best defense against the arbitrary power of monarchs and the superstitions of religious dogma. It was the key not only to challenging the powers of kings and aristocracies but also to creating a more just and humane civilization.

Voltaire's Bastards by John Ralston Saul :: A Book Review

The title "Voltaire's Bastards" is certainly designed to grab attention. But the subtitle "The Dictatorship of Reason in the West" is truly intended to pique curiosity. How on earth can something as positive as the use of rational thought, a cornerstone of the Enlightenment, become as repressive as a dictatorship?
