excerpt from "Space Waka" • Walking the Clouds is a revelation. Science fiction fans would do well to pay close attention to these writers because they may be the vanguard of the next wave of change in the genre. This anthology would make an excellent source for any academic study of indigenous peoples and for the general reader as well.

My reading of Walking the Clouds was a bit piecemeal, reading most of the essays and some of the accompanying stories. It is not, as I initially thought, an anthology of short stories. Mostly Dillon has selected extracts from longer works that illustrate the points being made in the introductory essays.
